Dear Sir/Madam

In the year 2018 the Center of Languages and Communication commemorates its 65 years of active presence in the structure of Poznan University of Technology. As part of the commemorations, a conference entitled

The role of CLC in the process of educating the students of Poznan University of Technology – experiences and challenges will be held in Poznan on 17-18 May, 2018. The conference is organised under the patronage of SERMO. We cordially invite all interested persons to participate in the conference. In the attachments please find the program, the application form and information about accommodation.

Registration dates and conference fees:

Early registration: until 31 March 2018

SERMO members: 40 EUR

Non-members: 45 EUR

Late registration: until 30 April 2018

SERMO members: 48 EUR

Non-members: 55 EUR

The conference fee covers participation in all conference meetings, lectures and workshops, lunch, coffee/tea during coffee breaks, the cocktail party on 17 May, and Celebratory Dinner on 18 May. The conference fee does not cover accommodation. We suggest conference participants book accommodation well in advance, as a large international conference is held in Poznan on the same dates and a shortage of hotel rooms is expected.

Please direct application forms and queries to konferencja65CJKPP@put.poznan.pl

The organisers of the conference will also be happy to answer your questions:
