

AMERICAN
WEST
IN ENGLISH WORDS

Konkurs polega na wybraniu poprawnej odpowiedzi.
Wypełnione karty odpowiedzi prosimy wysyłać na adres:

aneta.antokolska@put.poznan.pl

Data zakończenia konkursu: 27.01.2023r.

Wśród autorów poprawnych odpowiedzi zostaną rozlosowane atrakcyjne nagrody.

KONKURS PRZEZNACZONY JEST DLA STUDENTÓW PP

ŻYCZYMY POWODZENIA !

Choose the correct answer.

Send the answer sheet to:

aneta.antokolska@put.poznan.pl

The deadline is: January 27, 2023.

The contest winner will receive an attractive prize.

THE QUIZ IS AIMED AT PUT STUDENTS

GOOD LUCK!

1. A pathfinder means:

- A. a person or an object that finds a new way of doing something
- B. a route or track between one place and another
- C. a place where three or more roads join and traffic must go around a circular area in the middle

2. A wrangler is:

- A. a person whose job is to protect a forest or natural park
- B. a person who spends their time travelling from place to place
- C. someone who looks after horses or other animals on a ranch

3. High Noon is a Western movie. The plot centers on a town marshal whose sense of duty is tested when he must decide to either face a gang of killers alone, or leave town with his new wife. The film stars:

- A. John Wayne
- B. Clint Eastwood
- C. Gary Cooper

4. The legend has it that the original Ford Mustang of 1964 was named after:

- A. a man who performs stunts, especially instead of an actor in a film or television program
- B. an American wild horse roaming the plains
- C. a horse breed originally from the Arabian Peninsula, with a high tail and a particular shape of head

5. Buffalo chips, the dried dung of buffalo, were used as fuel, esp. by early settlers on the western plains. They were also called:

- A. meadow crisps
- B. western coal
- C. meadow muffins

6. This expression originated with the building of the Union Pacific Railroad in the 1860s, when it meant the last town on the line, which was carried on freight cars as the track was extended. The town consisted mainly of tents occupied by construction gangs, liquor dealers and gamblers. The phrase is:

- A. hell on wheels
- B. red light district
- C. saloon

7. Although many western towns used the name Boot Hill, the first graveyard named Boot Hill was at Hays, Kansas. The term refers to the fact that many of its occupants were cowboys who died violently, as in gunfights or by hanging, and not of natural causes. In other words, they died:

- A. with their boots off
- B. with their boots on
- C. bootcut

8. Tombstone, Arizona, was known to „have a man for breakfast every morning”. The film Tombstone is based on real events that took place in the 1880s in the town, including the most famous gunfight, which took place at:

- A. O.K. Corral
- B. Brunch Saloon
- C. Main Street

9. The name of this town was taken from the yerba buena plant, a native herb of the West Coast of North America. Yerba Buena was the original name of the settlement that later became:

- A. Los Angeles
- B. San Francisco
- C. Sacramento

10. These most popular clothes on earth, Levi's® blue jeans, were made out of denim and reinforced with metal rivets. They became exceptionally popular with:

- A. gold miners in California
- B. American trappers
- C. Native Americans